

A 15-day tour package for two to Latin America, a Lexus car, court-side Raptors tickets with dinner for two, 42-inch TV, fur coats, jewellery ... these are among the hundreds of items sold at this year's Phoenix Ball. Almost a thousand guests attended the 9th annual fundraising gala organized by the Mississauga Board of Chinese Professionals & Businesses (CPB).

CPB Foundation Directors presented $10,000 to each of our 5 partner-recipients. From Left: CPB Foundation Vice President Andre Mak, CPB Foundation Director Dr. Wilson Loo, Yee Hong Foundation President Dr. Joseph Y.K. Wong, Director Ron Lenyk, Alumni Manager of University of Toronto Mississauga Sue Prior, Trillium Health Centre Board President Scott Campbell, Trillium Health Centre Foundation President Dennis Cartwright, CPB Foundation Director Boris Jackman, CPB Foundation Director Derwin Wong, The Credit Valley Hospital Foundation Vice President Tina Triano, CPB Foundation Director Steven Cheng, Chinese Cultural Centre of Greater Toronto Vice President Lena Wong, Phoenix Ball 2007 Gala Co-Chairs Amber Ing & Annie Tsu, and CPB Chair Audrey Chiang.

The winner of the Bear Mountain Raffle is Andre Mak, ticket # 026.

The winners of the Phoenix Ball Raffle Ticket are:

First Prize: Chi Cheong Cheung, ticket #12032

Second Prize: Margaret Loo, ticket #11630

Third Prize: Robert March, ticket #12600

“CPB sincerely thank our sponsors for their support; our gala Co-Chairs, the organizing committee and our volunteers for their time and effort; and our guests for making this gala a huge success,” said Audrey Chiang, Chair of CPB.

CPB Foundation & CPB Directors, together with Phoenix Ball Co-Chairs, proposing a toast to the guests. From left: Philip Ho, Michael Leung, Audrey Ong, Matthew Lam, Ron Lenyk, Irene Tse, Tali Wong, Boris Jackman, Amy Tjen, Derwin Wong, Andre Mak, Annie Tsu, Mayor Hazel McCallion, Amber Ing, Audrey Chiang, Lawrence Mak, Lily Van, Judy Yeung, Steven Cheng & Dr. Wilson Loo.